10. FACTS, EVALUATION AND COMMENT: (Use additional plain sheet if necessary)

A. Distribution of propaganda material by the Bund Deutscher Jugend during the reporting period included the following: 40,000 copies of the "Information Service"; 15,000 pamphlets; 530,000 leaflets; 1,000 posters; 1,500 copies of their confidential information service and 10,000 badges in connection with the "Committee for the Unmasking of the Third World Youth Festival". This constitutes a total of 2,435,000 leaflets; 315,000 copies of the "Information Service"; 50,000 pamphlets; 3,000 copies of the confidential information service; 500 booklets; 167,000 stickers; 11,870 posters; 35,000 circulars and circular letters; 30,000 Christmas cards; 7,500 balloons and 10,000 badges. Membership during this period has increased from 7,399 to 8,056 and the number of local branches has increased to 176.

In addition to their extensive propaganda work to counteract the Communist Third World Youth Festival, the Bund Deutscher Jugend conducted the following activities: two more classes have attended the political training school, the summer camp has showed a steady increase in attendance, and two official excursions to Sweden and Italy (both for pleasure and to increase the BDJ's activity and influence) are now under way.

The program of the BDJ has now been drawn up by the BDJ leaders and GPC field representatives, and is now being disseminated in the August issue of the "Information Service". This program advocates a free Germany within a free world, democracy, and the rights of man. Points stressed are a democratic Germany, a peace that they are prepared to defend, a firm partnership between capital and labour, a close relationship between the population and their government, and a closer understanding among the youth of the world.

B. The establishment of a firm platform for the BDJ is a definite asset in giving the organization a more affirmative and definite stand, thus providing an answer to its critics who complain that heretofore it has been anti-Communist but not for anything, as well as serving as a useful tool in its recruiting drives.
