1. In meeting yesterday [] told [] that any absorption of BDJ considered bad idea. [] countered he not sympathetic to BDJ as such but pointed out necessity of avoiding remnants fall in wrong hands because of resentment over their present situation. [] suggested one time payment of DM 3,000 to keep group above water and demand fully documented details from BDJ for further consideration. [] stated categorically that not one cent forthcoming from us for such purpose. [] then admitted that no URMOTHER funds available for BDJ but that this unavailability of funds did not solve problem. [] suggested that perhaps other Department of Fed Govt in better position to take over BDJ if Govt control of BDJ desired and stressed again our opposition to direct or indirect connection with JBTHRONG. Matter left there since [] unbelieving anybody but URMOTHER able to execute.
2. [] not convinced [] will drop BDJ idea completely despite notice our position. However no further action necessary at moment. Will watch and report all further developments.
