1. In answer to Para. 4 of Reference, you may advise the Consul General that;

a. The Technische Dienst has been dissolved since June.

b. No assurances were given to its members that we would give them any assistance in case of investigation, detention, or other inconveniences. It was and still is our belief that each individual was fully aware of the ramifications connected with the undertaking.

c. We do not desire now to give any such assurances.

d. We do not assume that in the final analysis membership in the BNJ or the Technische Dienst will become a bar to employment or emigration.

2. It may be added that the above statement should be for the information of the Consul General only and should not necessarily be transmitted by him to inquirers.
