The German Mission reports that the CADOST project involving support of the League of German Youth (EDJ) has been liquidated and that CIA can no longer be held responsible for activities of this group. Nevertheless, the possibility exists that the EDJ may continue its activities with the aid of other sponsors, such as the West German Ministry for All-German Affairs. Since the EDJ will continue to be identified with U.S. interests as a result of the recent publicity, the German Mission will attempt to frustrate all such attempts by the EDJ to gain new support and will continue its efforts to force liquidation of the entire organization.
