INTERNAL SECURITY - UK

Reference is made to your letter dated May 1, 1950, your reference SO DB-24028, regarding the subject who you advised you would maintain contact with on matters pertaining to operations abroad providing such contact would not interfere with any current activities of this Bureau.

In compliance with your request to be furnished any information regarding the subject, there is attached a copy of the report of Special Agent James W. Ryan dated June 5, 1953, at New York, New York, in captioned matter.

For your information, Peter Jablon from whom the information concerning the subject was received is, as reflected in the attached report, of unknown reliability. We have been advised that Peter Jablon during his recent contact with our New York office gave the impression of being an emotionally unstable individual with a persecution complex. We furnish you this information in order that you may more ably evaluate the information set forth in the attached report concerning the subject about whom Jablon has expressed a personal dislike.
