

11 June 1953

Dear Miss Higgins:

I appreciate your note of June ninth with its enclosures which I return herewith. The person you describe interests me and I shall see what we can do along the lines of your suggestion.

I read with interest your story in the Tribune last Sunday. When we talked I did not know that I was to receive such flattering publicity. In any event, I feel that you handled with both accuracy and discretion the substance of what we discussed together.

Faithfully yours,

W. A. H. Dulles

Miss Marguerite Higgins
New York Herald Tribune
230 West 41st Street
New York 36, New York

AWD/c
Signer personal

(b)(3)