Dear Tom:

Many thanks for your letter of 24 January 1955 enclosing the documents we had previously discussed. The item on France we had seen previously. The piece referring to the Doolittle group is highly inaccurate, as is that referring to Indochina. It is interesting to note he is still trying to sell his wares to Congressional committees. I appreciate your keeping us advised.

With very best wishes.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Thomas E. Dewey
