MATTER _____

Col. Truman Smith,
Greenfield Hill,
Fairfield, Connecticut.

Dear Truman:

Sent to Mr. Tolson

Many thanks for your letter of October 14 which I found upon my return from the second tour around the country with Governor Dewey.

I have gone over your memorandum and I want to study it thoroughly when I get free of my present political activities, which are now taking all of my time. I agree that there should be an intelligence board. I want to give a little further thought, however, to the question of its personnel, and I should like to discuss this with you after November 2.

Sincerely,

A. W. Dulles
