CAUTION-1 - Salary Payment

1. Subject, an indigenous operational assistant of BOB, is in the overt employ of HICOG, Berlin Element. His salary is being paid by HICOG, Bonn on a reimbursable basis. It is our understanding that this arrangement was laid on by your station and that the reimbursement of HICOG is being handled by you.

2. effective 1 January 1954, we propose to reduce Subject to a gross salary of 800 DM, which will yield him a net pay of 679.20 DM est. In addition we shall have to pay another 68.50 DM est for social insurance.

3. As soon as requisite arrangements have been made by your station, we would appreciate cabled notification so we can submit a field project amendment. If for any reason a job description matching Subject's reduced pay should be required by HICOG, we would appreciate your supplying same, keyed to the cover job he presently occupies.

4. Subject is not aware that he is in effect being paid by a BANK. This fiction roll of course has to be maintained and in line with it the pay reduction should be made to appear as a measure necessitated by HICOG policy governing the affairs of indigenous personnel.
