

March 13, 1969

Dear Jerry:

Thank you for your letter of March 5, 1969, suggesting a short meeting with Mr. Earl Kulp of AID/Vietnam.

I regret that the demands on my time have become so pressing that a personal meeting with Mr. Kulp is not possible at present. I would like him to meet with a member of my staff, however, so that we can get the benefit of his ideas and opinions. If it is agreeable with him, he could call 395-4966 and set up an appointment with Dean Moor, one of my Vietnam specialists.

Best regards,

Dear Bill:

I am sorry that I did not get an answer back to you before I left for Europe concerning your desire to see Elliot Richardson. My staff followed up on your request during my absence and I was pleased to learn that you have now seen Mr. Richardson.

Best regards,
