Dear Sam:

As you can well imagine, my leisure for non-official reading has been virtually eliminated. Yet a hurried glance at Great Decisions, 1969 provides a refreshingly concise and lively review of the full menu of issues that comes to this office.

I appreciate your sending me the booklet. I am sure that it has played a major part in the success of the fifteenth annual Great Decisions program.

Best Regards,

Dear Clark:

Please accept my apology for the inconvenience caused you on March 13 by my inability to meet with you to discuss the views of your Committee on Vietnam.

I now have your memorandum on Vietnam strategy in hand and find it most interesting.

While I would like to meet personally with you and other members of the Committee, as you now know firsthand, the demands on my time are very heavy. Please call me to see if we can arrange another appointment. In the interim, I would like for Mr. Dean Moor, with whom you met on the 13th, to serve as a continuing contact point with the Committee if this is agreeable with you. This would assure that the Committee's views and suggestions will continue to come to my attention. Mr. Moor can be reached on 395-4966.

Best regards,

Henry A. Kissinger

Handwritten note: of course, I would love to see you informally any time.

Dear Dale:

You will never believe it, but I only received your Christmas card last week.

If you do come to Washington, I would love to see you either for lunch or dinner.

Warm regards,

Henry A. Kissinger
