7. Fahmi urged that the UN involve itself not only in the withdrawal issue, but also in the subsequent negotiating process. This should be under UN auspices, Fahmi told Waldheim, and Egypt expects that a peace conference will be attended by the Big Four-excluding China, which Fahmi expects to opt out-as well as by Israel, Egypt, and Syria. Waldheim has the impression that Fahmi would prefer New York as the site of the peace conference because this would allow the nonaligned states at the UN to exert pressure for an outcome favorable to the Arabs.

HUSAYN'S TRAVELS

8. King Husayn of Jordan departed unannounced this morning on a one-day trip to Jidda, Kuwait, Abu Dhabi and Syria, the US Embassy in Amman reports. The King, accompanied by his Prime Minister and Chief of Staff, is expected to return to Amman this evening. This trip may be a reaction to Jordan's exclusion from recent pan-Arab consultations.
