THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

April 15, 1975

Dear Mr. President:

It was a special pleasure to welcome you to Washington and I want to express my deep gratitude for the magnificent statue of King David which you so thoughtfully presented. Mrs. Ford was equally delighted with the beautiful necklace and earring set she received. I also want to thank you for your kindness in sending the inspiring volume of children's paintings and poems. These gifts will serve to remind all Americans of your visit and of the deep friendship that exists between Israel and the United States.

I very much appreciated the chance to meet personally with you and to benefit from our exchange of views. I look forward to close cooperation between our Governments in pursuit of regional and world peace.

With personal best wishes to you and Mrs. Katzir.

Sincerely,

His Excellency
Dr. Ephraim Katzir
President of Israel

Dear Walter:

At the inauguration in his home of an "Exhibition of Children's Paintings and Poems on Peace" on January 27, President Katzir presented copies of the enclosed book to the assembled Diplomatic Corps with a request that they be transmitted to each Chief of State.

I am sure you will know how best to handle this request.

Sincerely,

Dirk

These are the cards from the custom jewelry which was given to Mrs. Ford. I am sure the State Department probably has a description on it.

Thank you.
