A. The Main Kikans to Date. Pg. 22 This section is limited to those groups and agencies dealing in the procurement of information, regardless of the other activities they undertake simultaneously, including lobbying and other efforts toward J.I.S. re-establishment. The stronger and better-organized groups in the field of secret operations have been until quite recently those which enjoyed the favors and financial support of American agencies; the semi-overt agencies, having greater permanence but less power, have belonged to one department or another of the Japanese government. (B) Navy Groups. Pg. 32 There is not to our knowledge any highly organized group of ex-Navy I.S. professionals at present concentrating upon the procurement of information. There are several prominent individuals and groups, either working in conjunction with KAJIE Torashiro and his subordinates or independently, which have figured very prominently in clandestine operations concerning Nationalist revival: notably, KOBAYASHI Shozaburo, YAMAMURA Yoshio, SAEDA Minoru, and KOJIMA Kichisaburo, and their subordinates. Their chief activities have been directed at the manipulation and subversion of the Maritime Safety Agency, maintenance of liaisons to YEMOTO Hiroshi and the Chinese Nationalist leaders in Formosa, MIYURA's high-level negotiations for revival of a Navy and work with GND, and MAEDA plans for a revival of Naval Intelligence. KOBAYASHI Shogaburo maintains a general supervisory position over KARAKUCHI Takatsuo's Wiken including Vice Admiral YAMA Jiro's group, the "REISHISHA" (organization (now closely affiliated with NABEYAMA's World Democracy Research Association), the Heiwa (Peace) Trust Company, and KARAKUCHI's vague directional duties with the KIKUSUI KAI (Chrysanthemum Water League) and the Japan Anti-Communist League. At the same time, KOBAYASHI vaguely superintends and sponsors the JONAN-Japan Peoples Independence and Self-Defense League (now under the banner of "GENTOSHA") of KURIHARA Sho and SATOH Rosaku. MAEDA, KARAKUCHI, KAWANURA, former (Captain) FUKUSHIMA (son-in-law of the late Admiral YAMAGOTO), and several former Navy officers and Navy J.C. subordinates such as FUJUYA Tatsuo and TOBITA Kozemon are members of that group. It is not, however, an exclusively Navy organization nor is it, designed to carry out intelligence activities. (Cf:below)

C. 1951: The Change in the Character of Leading Organizations. Part 4

The beginning of 1951 brings a definite change in the nature and objectives of the leading groups because for the first time they were able to consider, optimistically and practically, the means to attain their real objectives. Intelligence operations now mean the establishment of a Japanese intelligence service, but a build-up of political power and re-creation of the Japanese armed forces. Powerful groups at present are concentrated on those broader aims.

The earlier visit of Mr. Dulles had awakened hopes of an early peace treaty, Pg. 45 the probability of rearmament and the possibility that after the peace treaty the Rightist political objectives might be gradually achieved. Subsequently, the hope that the purge might be lifted for many more former diplomats and politicians had added to the feverish planning. The JONAN Enterprises Company - People's Independence and Self-Defense League Group is an excellent example of the new type of underground group which emerged. It is not a cover company, nor is it merely a lobby group, and it is definitely not an intelligence-gathering agency although some of its members occasionally peddle information to get personal or organizational funds and it includes a secret planning staff for the re-creation of the Army and possibly Navy Intelligence Services. All of these functions are provided for, but the major purpose is infiltration of the Japanese government executive agencies, particularly the "stop-gap army" (National Police Reserves), the Maritime Safety Agency, the Foreign Office, and presumably in the future, the Army itself and the entire political structure.
The membership represents every field and service, and its liaison connections to other powerful groups, particularly KANABE's, are good. The Asiatic connections are strong, especially to "Third Force" Chinese. It clearly shows the new, broad objectives of clandestine operations by underground groups since it is organized to fulfill all of them. The JONAN Group contains former politicians like BABA Yusuke and AKASE Den with connections to OKAWA Shumei and HATAYAMA Ichiro; former diplomats MURIHARA Sho, FUCHIDA Yutaka, and KASAI Tatsuo; ex-Army leaders TANAKA Shinichi, OBA & SAKURABA Shiro, and, lately, OKAWA Genshichi; former Navy leaders NAEDA Kinomu, KOSATASHI Shozaburo, KAWAMURA Yoshiro, and Admiral YAMAMOTO's son-in-law Captain FUJINUMA, in addition to officials in the NSA who are former Navy men; former I.S. and Tokumu Kikan figures like FUSHIHARA Kazuo, Deputy G-2, Kwantung Army, and WACHI Takaji of RAN Kikan; last but hardly least, it includes SATOMI Ayosaku @ Hajime, onetime associate of KODAMA's in China and supporter of the Army Intelligence Units in China by virtue of his vast economic operations, legal or otherwise - a shadowy "friend" of the great in every field.

Present Combine which will probably have a strong voice in the Government and will therefore control the future Intelligence Agencies.

G. The Navy Problem. Pg. 58

If a Navy is re-established, the most likely figure to front for it is NUMURA Kichisaburo. If there is no Navy, the Maritime Safety Agency will probably be greatly expanded for coastal patrol and defensive purposes. It will be manipulated and infiltrated by subordinates of KOBAYASHI Shozaburo and MAEDA Minoru of JONAN, possibly under NUMURA's top-level advisory authority. If a Navy is authorized, the personnel controlling its subordinate intelligence service cannot possibly be determined at this stage. Other than the non-professionals mentioned above and KAWAJURA Yoshiro, also of the JONAN Group, we know of no possibilities. In the event a Navy I.S. is re-established, it would probably be selected from among former experts now engaged in other occupations. If limited to an expanded MSA, the JONAN Navy wing is almost certain to dominate it and any minor intelligence agency it may possess. However, many former Navy I.S. personnel will continue in their other employment or will attempt to establish themselves within the Foreign Office agency or even the Army agencies, relying upon the close post-war relationships they enjoyed with Army kikan leaders.
