Dear [Redacted]

May I express my sincere appreciation for the information conveyed in your letter of February 2 regarding your decision to award this organization a grant in the amount of $15,000.

We shall, of course, abide by the conditions specified in your letter: any unexpended portion of the grant will be returned to the society; appropriate acknowledgement of the aid of the society will be made in any published materials; and payment of the grant on or about 1 June 1960 is completely convenient.

We shall be in touch with you and your colleagues as we shape our plans for this activity and, again, I hope you will convey our appreciation to your Board for this favorable action.

Yours (s)incerely,

[Redacted Signature]

MEMORANDUM TO: [REDACTED] C

SUBJECT: [REDACTED] Travel Proposal B

C B The proposal from the [REDACTED] has been discussed with [REDACTED] C and with members of the [REDACTED] B
B All are in agreement with me that this undertaking is well justified and is deserving of support by the [REDACTED] B F

B As you are aware, psychology in much of [REDACTED] has been kept under wraps at various times in the past and is only now emerging into a fully participating part of the international scientific community. It is extremely important that American researchers and practitioners improve communication throughout the world in these next few critical years. It is fitting that the [REDACTED] B
[REDACTED] be identified with this improved communication.

Dear [Redacted] C

Your letter of January 25 has been received and steps are underway to process it quickly. Under a new procedure which we have now implemented, I expect to have word for you within one week's time. This speed is possible, also, because we were able to discuss the possibility of this proposal with several members of our [Redacted] in [Redacted] last week. Each was in agreement that the task should be funded by the [Redacted] consequently, its approval by our Board is a formality that should move quickly.

C I feel that [Redacted] and [Redacted] both of whom are apprised of the possibility of this funding, can perhaps be of assistance to you in completing your plans for the [Redacted]. They have assured me that they are willing to assist in any way you suggest. B

I shall look forward eagerly to the results of this proposed undertaking and am pleased that we were given the opportunity to assist.

Sincerely yours,

C / B

Dear [Redacted]

B On behalf of the [Redacted] I submit herewith a request for a grant in the amount of fifteen thousand dollars to be used in support of travel for selected psychologists in connection with the [Redacted] to be held during the [Redacted] in [Redacted]. It is our plan that these individuals, before or after the [Redacted] will thus be enabled to visit some of the centers in [Redacted] in which important research work in psychology is now going on.

B In 1957, a comparable grant from the [Redacted] made possible the travel of some of our members to the [Redacted]. The time now appears propitious to follow up contacts made then and in the years since 1957, in order to keep abreast of developments [Redacted]. If the [Redacted] sees fit to make this award, we shall select, through our [Redacted] and other sources, a small group of psychologists by criteria that will include special fields of competence, the nature of contacts already established in earlier foreign travel, and our knowledge of research activities [Redacted] that should be of interest to psychologists in the United States. I have already initiated arrangements for this selection; we also have informal agreements with federal and private agencies supporting travel to the [Redacted] that will permit some coordination of travel support grants to individuals.

As is our practice with external grants, any award will be kept in a separate account, with full reports of expenditures and outcomes made to the donor.

I sincerely hope this request falls within your sphere of interests. I shall of course be happy to answer any specific questions bearing on our plans. An early decision would be most helpful, in view of the complex arrangements necessary for individual travel of this sort.

Yours sincerely,
