Dr. Carlo MEY

1. The following information, received here as □ □ 2353, 2 Feb., is passed on for your information.
2. Dr. Carlo MEY, Hungarian SS collaborator, entered Italy with German occupation documents in the name of KIRCHBERGER early in December. He came to Rome where he was given lodgings by one Father IRANJ or IRAHJ.
3. Through an agent of the Italian positive intelligence, Abdoul Hadi MEJDOUB, representative in Rome for Destour and Bourghisa, MEY contacted Italian military intelligence. He offered the collaboration of his organization AMA (Anti Bolshevika Magyarok) in return for permission to establish under Italian control an AMA center in Rome, using commercial cover.
4. The offer was accepted by the Italians, who wish to follow developments. MEY then left Rome on or about 6 January to go to Austria, presumably making a clandestine border crossing.
5. Before his departure he set up the International Bolshevik Organization (abbreviation MAESZ) which will operate with a center in Italy. He was assisted, in formal meeting, by Hartman LAUTREBACHER, German Youth leader, the above mentioned MEJDOUB, and one Luigi SOMORIVARY.
6. Collaboration between LAUTREBACHER and MEY evidently began in July 1948. Both claim to be in continuous personal relation with German and Austrian military elements.
7. Request is made for comments and traces on the above named persons. A full report will follow.
