a. Action Reported by Field

1. In February the OCB approved a suggestion made by SE that surplus food stocks be offered to the Albanian people. On 4 March President Eisenhower, through the League of Red Cross Societies, offered $850,000 worth of food to the Albanian people. On 6 March the Albanian Government categorically refused the offer. Three million copies of a special leaflet covering the offer and its rejection were printed for air-drop over Albania. Future leaflets will feature messages expressing regret at the action of the Albanian Government received by President Eisenhower from prominent Albanians in the U. S. who have hitherto been sympathetic to the Albanian Communist regime.

2. As a part of the mail campaign, 38 Easter cards were mailed to selected Communist officials in Albania. Written on the cards with a chemical which remains invisible until exposed to direct light were messages keyed to the food offer made by President Eisenhower to Albania.

3. Weather conditions over Albania prohibited a leaflet drop during March.
