a. Action Reported by Field

1. During April members of the SE Division met several times with Mr. Hasan Dosti to discuss NCPA activities. In addition, C and C visited Rome for routine discussions with the NCPA Executive Committee.

2. Reports were received in April which indicated that there had been a split in the League of Peasants & Farmers Party, headed by Mr. Said Kryeziu. The splinter faction, led by Mr. Isa Alesi Hircu and calling itself the Albanian Peasant Party, submitted a request to the NCPA for admission as a separate political party. The Executive Committee of the NCPA has taken the position that the Albanian Peasant Party is the same as the League of Peasants & Farmers Party since it represents the same group of people with a change of officers and name only; that the problem of representation in the NCPA is in reality an internal problem of the League of Peasants & Farmers (Albanian Peasant Party); and that if the majority of the members of this political group are dissatisfied with the individuals representing them in the NCPA they can correct the situation by electing new representatives in the forthcoming election of members of the Executive Committee. We have agreed with this position pending further clarification of the nature and seriousness of the split.

3. The NCPA newspaper, Shqipëria, was published on schedule in April.
