In reference to Despatch No. 11202 from Bern, June 12, 1943, in No. 48, the following information on personalities mentioned therein may be of interest:

~~✓~~ ANDRE R. JESSIER, address: Arlindstrasse 11, Lichtenberg.
~~✓~~ OLIAN, Michel, alias OLIAME, of Estonian or Latvian origin, reported to come from Riga. Fought in the White Russian armies against the Bolsheviks after the last war. Last known address:
A Hotel des Portugais, Geneva, Switzerland.

~~✓~~ OLIAN was suspected by the British of currency smuggling and of being a German agent early in the war and came to Geneva from Paris soon after the war's outbreak. He is a specialist in foreign exchange transactions and in the unfreezing of frozen assets in the United States. Forty-five millions of stolen money think the Nazi leaders drained from the German people are deposited in a Western Swiss bank in his name.

~~✓~~ SUSPECTED GERMAN AGENT. UNKNOWN NAME ON SECRETARY LINE 4275.

Around 1942 OLIAM was reported to be coming to Paris with the help of LENAUD, an attorney of Paris and Geneva (Paris address: 14 rue de Verger), who died collaborator in getting back to France and was said to be "touze de confiance" of André tole de MURZIB.

Most recently we have also learned the following about OLIAM from a highly reliable source. He was working for the RIC (Command of the German Army) in some association with von KAHN R., Chief of the Finance Division, but was compelled to leave his undertakings in Switzerland after he was placed on the English and American black lists.

OLIAM's wife is the sister of a certain Nicoline FRITZENBERG who was to be deported by the Nazis from France to the East because of his presumed Jewish origin. A Mr. SCHWEYER (first name unknown) of Geneva would appear to be close to OLIAM and informed of his activities, since it was the former who later came for OLIAM with the Germans in the matter of his immediate deportation.
SCHWEYER is a retired mining official, a Jew, who lived in Paris from 1928 until 1938 when he moved to Geneva. In 1941 he was in France on some special mission for the chiefs of the armistice.
