MEMORANDUM FOR: Inspector General
VIA : Deputy Director for Administration
SUBJECT : Alleged Illegal Domestic Activities
(Project MOCKINGBIRD)

1. Reference is made to the request of the Associate Deputy Director for Administration for information concerning the identities of members of Congress who were in telephonic contact with either Scott or Allen during the course of our coverage of the latter two individuals.

2. This is to advise that a thorough search of available Project MOCKINGBIRD materials reflects the name of one Congressman, John McCormack, Democrat from Massachusetts, as having been in telephonic contact with Scott on 26 March 1963. This is the only record which reflects telephonic contact by a member of Congress.

3. Attached is a Xerox copy of the log which includes the call from Representative McCormick to Scott. Neither the tape nor the complete transcript is available.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Inspector General
VIA : Deputy Director for Administration
SUBJECT : Project MOCKINGBIRD

1. Project MOCKINGBIRD was a telephone tap in 1963 of the homes and the office of Robert S. Allen and Paul J. Scott, syndicated news columnists whose columns appear in the Northern Virginia Sun newspaper. A summary of the Project was previously furnished to your office.

2. In compliance with your request, the following additional information is attached:

a. Tab A consists of reports described in the Project summary previously furnished to you as based on information provided to the reporters by specific representatives of the Senate and Congress. Where available, telephone tap logs pertaining to these reports are attached to the report itself. It should be noted that copies of the transcripts of the conversations upon which the reports are based are also attached to the reports.

b. Tab B consists of telephone tap logs showing actual conversations between either Robert S. Allen or Paul J. Scott and members of the House of Representatives.

c. Tab C consists of telephone tap logs of, or where available, transcripts of conversations between Scott or Allen or others wherein a member of the Senate or Congress are mentioned as a source of information.

3. For your information, Adam, referred to in the attached logs and transcripts, is reporter Allen, and Sam is reporter Scott. It should also be noted that the Office of Security Project MOCKINGBIRD files, in addition to data previously furnished to your office, contains, for the most part, logs of telephone conversations with a brief indication of the conversation content, but the files do not contain either the tapes of the conversations or a complete transcript of all of the conversations.

4. There are numerous inferences in the telephone tap logs to Congressional sources of Scott and Allen, but there are no transcriptions or tapes available to substantiate this. A sample of this type of log is attached as Tab D. In the entry 1410-32 hours, a person identified as John could possibly be Representative John McCormack. Further in this log entry, a reference is made to Representative Michael Feighan implying that he is providing information, however, there is also the possibility that the information emanated from other sources. Without actual tapes or transcripts, no deductions as to sources relative to this type of log entry can be made.

5. Please advise if you desire any further information concerning this matter.

ASSASSINATION OF CASTRO

President Kennedy in news conference with Maryland-Delaware newspaper editors indicated that there is unrest in Cuba and that Castro might be assassinated.

Senator Hubert Humphrey indicated to SAM upon his return from Costa Rica that there had been some discussion about the possibility Castro might be assassinated.

SAM calls ADAM's attention to AP story from Miami over the weekend in which Manuel RAY's group agreed with the administration policy re no hit-and-run attacks on Cuba. The group states that unrest is growing and possible that Castro would be assassinated.

SAM states that these, all coming from different sources, could mean that something is in the wind. ADAM will include it in a column for Wednesday or Thursday (17-18 April)

23 - 24 May 1963

[redacted] has advised that during recent discussions between ADAM and SAM the following points were noted:

(b)(3)

- a. ADAM told his good-friend Mrs. Beehan that he had been visited by a man from CIA, an old Army friend, Stanley. (Col. Grogan). He told Mrs. Beehan that through certain newsmen Administration circles were taking pot-shots at Mr. McCone and that Mr. McCone was concerned that they (the Administration) were planning to "unload him or kick him upstairs
- b. Col. Grogan contacted ADAM's secretary and gave her two unclassified references he had spoken to ADAM about. One was on Defense Department appropriations and one was on a Vietnamese disputing Warren Unna's story (Unna's story per SAM was an administration leak)
- c. ADAM thanked SAM for procuring the hearing on Defense Department appropriations. SAM sees several stories in it. One is that it gives the details for the first time on the Special Policy Committee. Per SAM Robert Kennedy heads it but U. Alexis Johnson is chairman. Mr. McCone is on the committee. They are both intrigued that McGeorge Bundy is also on the committee.
- d. SAM stated to ADAM that he had been cautioned to be a little careful in what is said to Col. Grogan. Col. Grogan is very close to another person in CIA, with loyalty like that to Mr. McCone, and has had a couple of meetings with him this week. "This may be both friendly and a surveillance job." SAM did not wish to name this other person at the time, but knows his name

SAM stated that "they" are especially concerned over the story about no further low-level flights over Cuba. SAM was told that Col Grogan will make frequent visits to them and will probably bring up the Cuban thing at a later meeting.

ADAM asks SAM if they can make "passes" at Sherman KENT. SAM says that they shouldn't do it for a while. He indicated that they will wait and see what Mr. McCone does on a couple of things which will come up within the next three or four days. SAM also indicates that KENT (or around KENT) has friends all over the place so he wishes to be well documented before writing a piece.

SAM suggests that ADAM call Col. Grogan next week and ask why Castro is being allowed to stay in power so long. ADAM will do it.

SAM reports that Rep. Michael Feighan of Ohio is very pleased at the mail response to their story that Feighan is opposing the sponsoring of the Russian "Old Believers" into the U.S. SAM states that Feighan had told him much on this. SAM also read Abba Schwartz's executive session testimony.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Feighan told him that the international organization involved is funded 33 per cent by the U.S. Government. ADAM replies "a Commie outfit." Feighan also told SAM that one of the persons involved was secretary to Lenin or very close. SAM also indicates that he learned that there is CIA money "in this thing too."

ADAM: Say, pardon my breaking off, I had a CIA guy in here.

BEE.: You must have had a million dollar client, that's the only reason you would have broken off with me.

ADAM: No, sweetie, I had a CIA guy here.

BEE : Investigating you?

They're ah, he's very close to McCONE and ah, see some of these Administration hot-shots, mouthpieces like Marquis Childs and Roland Evans and some of these other ah, Ed, ah, Peter Clapper, these guys are close to tootsie over at the White House, and they've been having a, just in the last month or so, just been taking pot-shots at McCONE. Those things are not accidental and ah he ah, Stanley, who's and old, old friend, an old Army man, who's not over there, he came over and we were talking about it, and then you called, and I know he would be uncomfortable if I was talking to my "Chinese" friend.

THE ALLEN-SCOTT REPORT

Bobby Queried on Russ Sect

WASHINGTON—A House immigration subcommittee is challenging Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy's decision that some 250 descendants of a Russian sect living in Turkey be allowed to settle in the United States.

The legislators, headed by Rep. Michael Feighan (D., O.), are questioning both the attorney general's judgment and authority in permitting this band of Old Believers, a sect that split from the Russian Orthodox church in the 17th century, to come here.

Robert S. Allen
Paul Scott

The group is slated to arrive in June under the auspices of the Tolstoy Foundation of New York, unless the administration's plan is upset by the House committee's investigation.

A showdown on the case is due this week when Abba P. Schwartz, the state department's administrator of security and consular affairs, appears before the committee to explain the Kennedy administration's action.

Key Official Behind Move

Schwartz was summoned after an exchange of correspondence with the attorney general revealed that Schwartz was the key official behind the move to bring the Old Believers to this country.

Robert Kennedy, who also will be interrogated, wrote the legislators that he granted the sect special asylum under section 212 [d] of the immigration and nationality act because of "very persuasive reasons outlined by the state department" in a communication from Schwartz.

The attorney general claimed the sect's members, descendants of a band of 5,000 Old Believers who left Russia more than 300 years ago to live in Turkey, are under heavy pressure by Russian agents to return to Russia. About 1,000 of the sect returned last September, but reportedly are unhappy.

Since all admissions under section 212[d] are temporary and for emergency cases,

Robert Kennedy indicated the administration later would seek specific authorization from Congress to give the sect permanent residence.

In grilling Schwartz, the lawmakers will seek answers to questions they put up to Robert Kennedy but which he sidestepped by referring them to the state department. Foremost of these is whether the granting of this special asylum is a prelude to bringing other Russian groups to the United States, particularly from Latin America and Canada.

Send Letter to Kennedy

The Feighan committee raised this possibility in a letter to Kennedy, as follows:

"It is noted that the Tolstoy Foundation report forewarns of similar developments among other Russian emigre groups settled in Latin America, particularly Brazil, where the Russian emigre groups are clamoring for emigration to the United States. Obviously, this gives rise to the question whether a favorable determination on the 'Old Believers' in Turkey will produce a chain reaction of determinations in response to the clamor of other Russian emigre groups.

"Another related consideration is the case of the Dukhobors, a Russian religious sect residing in Canada. They are known as 'spirit-wrestlers' and have much in common historically with the 'Old Believers.' Their collectivist customs and tendency toward public nudist demonstrations have caused tensions between them and the Canadian government in recent years.

"They, too, have been the targets of soviet pressure to return to the homeland and some members of the sect have in fact returned. In light of these tensions and the pressure of Russian agents, does it follow that this sect will also be granted asylum in the United States?"

The legislators also want specific details on the number of the sect who voluntarily asked for emigration and those the Tolstoy Foundation "recruited" to come to the United States.

PENKOVSKY MATERIAL - WHICH IS "BUNK"

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

20 May 1963

[redacted] has advised that during recent discussions between SAM and ADAM, ADAM brought up the subject of the New York Herald Tribune story about the recall of 300 top Soviet intelligence operatives following the Penkovsky exposure and trial. He mentioned that the author of the article, Jim Warner, is a desk man, not a regular reporter, and wondered how Warner could get such a story.

(b)(6)

SAM explained that there is one group in CIA which has been having private sessions feeding the material out to the press. He indicated quite strongly that the information coming from CIA was "bunk." He stated that he has collected the various stories. He mentioned that Eli Abel of NBC had it first, Charles Bartlett had it second, and the Herald Tribune had it third. ADAM recalled that Joe Alsop had printed a "razzle-dazzle" story on it also.

SAM stated that he had checked into the stories and found nothing to them. He indicated that the stories, including the newspaper-promotions of Penkovsky were all planted.

SAM stated that he had talked with Representative Leslie C. ARENDS, (R), Illinois, a member of the Special Subcommittee on National Intelligence Agencies. SAM stated that he was going to provide ARENDS with some material so that ARENDS can give Mr. McCONE notice to testify. ARENDS would then "sound out" Mr. McCONE on this matter.

As a side note, informant advised that ADAM indicated that he had seen Jim Warner only last week and that Warner was unhappy and had been complaining how he had been passed over many times during his 20 years with the Herald Tribune and Warner's complaints that other reporters are allowed to write columns and he still covers odd jobs.

ADAM indicated that if SAM can obtain the full story about the leaks it would make a very good story.

ADAM: ...ah, well, ah, o.k., well then you probably saw on page three ah the story by Jim Warner of the New York Herald Tribune, page three of the Post about 300 of Russia's top ah intelligence operatives have been summoned to the Kremlin...

SAM : Yeh, I ah

ADAM: Russian intelligence...

SAM : The Herald Tribune thing

ADAM: That's right

SAM : It was in the Sunday Herald Tribune

ADAM: Oh they did

SAM : I readit in the Sunday paper and...

ADAM: Oh, I see

SAM : ...I ah; I mean, I don't know anything about it, I've, I'll check ADAM, see if there's anything to it see.

ADAM: "Russian intelligence chiefs are so shaken up over Western penetration of their ranks that they've summoned at least 300 of their top operatives back to Moscow for consultations." Now, Jim Warner is a desk man, Jim's an old timer around here, he's a desk man, where the hell and how the hell he would pick this thing up, I wouldn't have the remotest idea.

SAM : ADAM, there's one group in the CIA have been having private little sessions feeding stuff out,

ADAM: Oh, I see

SAM : The story they fed out on this, about this Russian spy thing...

ADAM: Yeh

SAM : ...is a lot of bunk! (SAM's emphasis)

ADAM: Well, this guy, Pentkovsky, first he was a scientist, now they call him a Colonel and then they up-graded him to where he's a key figure and all that sort of stuff, you know, what's-his-name, ah ah Joe Alsop, had a very razzle-dazzle piece about him.

SAM : Well, Eli Abel had it first on NBC,

(UNCLEAR)

SAM : All the military is, you know, storied around as being controlled, see and

ADAM: Uh huh

SAM : I've got all these because there's nothing, the stuff that Bartlett had about this guy over in Turkey was phony, all our military attaches reports on this guy was that he was a ah out-and-out ah very smooth operator and never any of these statements that he was, you know

ADAM: Uh huh

SAM : Fed up with the Soviet system or anything like that, I've already checked all of that, there's nothing in those statements, now this is a planted job, and I want to, I'm going to, this is something worth really going into

ADAM: IT IS! It would be awfully good if you could get us a piece on that ah saying is this a double ah, is this a build-up, a phony buildup, who make this guy look ah very, very sinister and that something very terrible and all that sort of stuff, there must be some purpose of it, give them the impression that we have penetrated their Iron curtain, their intelligence system, well, I doubt that.

SAM : (CHANGES SUBJECT TO ANOTHER STORY, POLITICAL)

(Later when discussing a new column appearing in the NY Herald Tribune by Evans and Novak; ADAM mentions that he was talking to the aforementioned Jim Warner only last week and Warner was complaining about being passed over. He was unhappy with the H-T, less newsmen and more columnists and he still does odd jobs after 20 years.)

Adam's Office 19 March 1963
Adam and Sam conversation

(answering)
Yes, Paul

Yes Bob, how are you today

I think I'm fighting a cold, I'm not sure but...a lot of sneezing last night and one thing and another

Well, I put out some feelers on this steel thing, Bob, theres two things, one, I'll I'm doing it through the Senate labor committee up here and they will try to find out what the ... the steel company is going to come in for an increase but they don't know exactly how much its going to be and also to see whether theres any contact between the White House or what they're doing. Now, Kennedy joined some kind of a steel union out in Pittsburgh and this has upset the hill people

Kennedy?

Yeh, he accepted...he didn't...just one of them way down the line one of his secretaries accepted a union card from the steel things and this the steel people found out about it and they're upset about ~~it~~ that. That's the only thing. I'll get the name of the union and everything and it'll make a little...

from Justice Dept. How?

It'll make an item. Joe Keenan didn't know anything but he said he would try and make some inquiries. He said they had no contact. He's with the Machinists, electricians rather, he said they had no contact but he would see if he could...he didn't think much of...what's the head of the steel union?

Dave MacDonald

Yeh, he thought he was a big blubber head, but he said he'll be calling Bob Kennedy. But he ~~said~~ didn't know anything. He said well they're meeting here today and tomorrow, that is yesterday and today and he said well I'll see what I can find out and so I'm going to see him either tomorrow or the next day.

Well, I thought for today I'll go ahead on this PT thing. Ive got enough on this Yeh, you know they're going to have the whatyoucallit, the premere on ah in Boston, thes going to have it in June. We don't have to boost the God damned movie.

I'm not even going to mention the company's name

No, I wouldn't

Idon't think...

And the thing about it is, I mean, my thought is you might want to write it from the point of view of just taking a slap at these people trying to curb these Cubans, Cuban refugees who want to fight.

Well, this is

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

That's to me the outrageous and the infanous thing.

It's kind of a symbol of our policy of what happened here, this is in effect

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

(continuing)

And then they have ...you see what they are doing, the Justice Department has ordered the arrest of the soldiers of fortune that are selling arms down there to the Cubans and they're trying to find out, but they haven't found anything on the statute books for training them down there,

(Noise on the line)

(continuing) Boy, that's heh heh

(Noise on the line)

Adam: Yeh, that's a big "bug"

That must have really went through it

Well I hope Sylvester or whoever the jerk is that's getting it, gets it. Ah, was he, do you think he was the anonymous...

No, I got a tip that it was MacNamara. Now I'll find out here...

Yeh, I notice that Mundt said the committee is going to try, is going to demand to know who this was, so I get the idea it wasn't Sylvester

No, it was actually MacNamara himself. The guy on the Chicago Tribune who had a person out there said that this is what he understood. Now I've got Sam Shaeffer checking see and since they were out there they were tied up and couldn't use it

Newsweek

Well, Jesus, maybe we could throw a line in on that, that the committee suspects him, that this latest use of the "anonymous pentagon spokesman" was MacNamara himself. That Sylvester had done such a lousy job that, had aroused so much furor, that MacNamara is trying

(Noise on the line)

Adam: (continuing) God Damn! ...is trying his hand at it, so I'd throw that line in on that. This Friday I don't think they'll have him up this week.

No, they're pretty sore about the thing, they're kind of talking about holding him off for some time to come.

Yeh, I'd just let him dangle on the vine and build up a damn good devastating case against him. Let him squawk. Ah, you know this business of these Russian overflights, I wonder if there is a pattern to those. I hear these 30 minute flights over Alaska, they penetrated 30 minutes worth, and they can cover a hell of a lot of ground in 30 minutes in one of these recon. planes, even the slow ones. Couple of hundred miles as least. And now here these babies come in over the Enterprise out in the Pacific. As you pointed out in that story we had a couple of weeks ago, those guys knew where that baby was. They weren't looking for it, they made right for it.

Well, the thing I'm putting together Bob, I think its a hell of an interesting story, is on Cuba, and what Cuba is actually being used for in addition to sub-

*TV program
might of 3-20

version, see. They have, we now have definite evidence, they have modified they've got a modified version of the SA-2 and the SA-3, which can knock down short range ~~ballistic~~ ballistic missiles. Now the only reason they can't knock down longer range is because they haven't got the radar tuned in to it yet, see. And now the same thing like a, so what do you do. You establish a tracking station in Cuba, you pick up and you get a fix on these things, then you radio this information to a control center in Moscow who then sends it to the missile site. And this is a matter of...

Seconds!

...seconds here, and then they can zero in with this thing. Now this is what's got the, why they set up that special sub-committee, is to see how, whether this link and whether the, ~~we~~ we're not delaying too long in putting our own in, because all this, they're going ahead with the refinement of their SA-2 and 3 rather than going to a new missile like we are. And I sat down with two people who know this radar thing backward and forward to be sure there was, to be sure that this thing was very feasible, and they said this is the way this stuff works.

Well, I think that just a terrific story, when you got the pieces put together that Russia has made Cuba into a powerfull anti-missile base.

Outpost.

Outpost, huh. Whatever ~~you~~ you want to call it, a base, outpost, ah, it's a base, it isn't an outpost, it's a base that's what it is.

They have one picture which shows a different type SA-2 than those they had, taken in this last parade down there, and they have never seen one of these modified ones up close and they believe this is it., because of the different type ~~new~~ new fins put on the 3rd stage and maybe they're down there testing this thing out now, but the actual missile would still be in Russia, but the communications system would be in Cuba.

Well, I think that's a terrific story. That's a hell of a story

And here they set up this special...

That would explain their keeping all these troops down there and all these SA-2's and 3's or whatever the hell they are.

Do you want me to go ahead and get this out of the way and hold on to this PT thing. This is something, this thing would hold up over the weekend, see, would be some kind of a feature story.

Well, o.k. go ahead. We had, we have, we got one Cuba story Wednesday, yeh Wednesday, on the troops, and then we got this French one for Thursday, which you wrote last night, then this is on Friday. Go ahead. There's no reason why we shouldn't. Of course its going to be after Kennedy's press conference and ah, which will be on Thursday and ah, and I don't know whether he what he

We're not going to do anything on Cuba, because I, this is outrageous, the... I saw the basic paper ~~Bob~~, on This should be pursued on high priority and with great urgency and contingent plans should exist for action on the basis of OAS resolutions if firm evidence Cuban involvement in direct, not indiredt, aggression is established. (Sounds like he was reading this last sentence). There's about seven if's in there, you got to have firm evidence, and direct aggression, you see, and then you got to go through the damn CAS. I took this here as a ~~basic~~ basic thing from which our whole policy is formulated.

I heard Hotlett from 10 o'clock from down in ~~East~~ Costa Rica, the CBS guy, and he said that there's nothing going to be done, nothing of any real significance. This high-flown talk. He said they may, Kennedy may promise them some economic aid but he said this is just good-willing and, he didn't use the word grand-standing but that's what the idea is. And he said that these, Samoza of Nicaragua, and somebody from Guatemala, are champion ~~as~~ at the bit to go after Cuba and they were just being squelched, in effect. That's what's happening. Well, go ahead, if you can build up a good story on that.

I've got plenty of stuff on that this thing, I think it might be good to get it out of the way. This would be in addition to Cuba, it would be a missile story in there...

(Alright, go ahead, yeh. If your sources can dig up anything, you can talk to them about this, these overflights, I mean there might be something more to it, than just these, I mean, it's possible of course that this thing in Alaska was an accident but that's just a lot of crap.)

It wasn't an accident, they were over there too long and

Thirty minutes, and this this business of these, four of em wasn't it, coming down over ~~four Bears, or couple of more,~~ and that this carrier was somewhere off of Guam, so hell's fire they must of they knew exactly where she was.

They know one ~~thing~~ thing. They know we're not going to take any aggressive action against ~~these~~ these people because of the Cuba, with our overflights down there. They know that if we shoot one down they'll turn around and...

Shoot one down. That's right.

And this is tying our hands, and if a..

Well, that's something we might build up a story on, but a, Cuba is paying off in still another way, we're flying ~~missions~~ surveillance flights, recon. flights, over that and we knock one of their planes down and when they come over our ships or Alaska, why they'll retaliate. So its just a stand-off. Quid pro Quo now. That's where there's ~~an~~ another pay-off. Cuba's just paying off right down the line. Every day in every way. Yeh. Yeh, go ahead.

Ah, Oh, Jackson said he had been getting quite a bit of mail from around the country on one of the columns in which we mentioned him in connection with this missile thing.

Yeh

All the way from Florida to...

Yeh, we're going to give him quite a write-up, a lot of publicity on this what you call ~~story~~ story; on this, I see the Philadelphia News write-up in full that Sylvester story, ah, if you see em, well, I'm going to be up there tomorrow, see if you can run anything down on what, if anything is happening to Sylvester. If they're really going to get him or anything like that.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

O.K., well I'll get on it. And also I'm watching this, they are probing on the political contribution thing, and this T ah, General Dynamics too, and how far they're going to go, they don't know. Just on how much to expand.

Ah, haven't heard anything more on Truman

No I haven't, Bob, John didn't know anything about it when I talked to him. He said he...

The Philadelphia News had the story, they played it on page two. They ran it but they didn't give it any special...

On the...

They haven't hear anything politically, and ah

There seems to be nothing happening politically, that I know of, up here. Trying to put together the two Bobby Kennedy stories. You know the one about his setting up this unit down there (in Jackson)

Yeh, yes, yeh, I was going to ask you, is Dolan back?

No, he'll be back on Friday

I was going to say, we are still hoping to get that report on Ball, yeh. Well, anything doing on, ah well you've got to wait till he comes back, on that business of J. Edgar Hoover, you haven't heard ~~anything~~ anything on that.

No, I told Rooney. Rooney hadn't heard anything. I just talked to him briefly and he says I don't know whether you ~~know~~ people or whether I have, but we sure have stirred up the Brazilians Government. You know cause...

Oh Christ...

I gave him all that stuff and he started to ask questions over there on the thing in, with Martin at the appropriation hearings.

Well, hell's bells, that was a combination. We stirred them up first, we had Campos. Mr. Campos, I'm sure they're convinced that this was an organized plot on the part of the State Department. We shot it. Then they shot it in committee. He absolutely certain. I'm sure they're convinced this was a job by the State Department.

Now I'm going to throw out just a line that Campos is reporting that this rift is going to be transferred to Geneva.

Go ahead

But people here are...

Doubtful.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Yeh, they'll believe it when they see it.

That's a good line, but U.S. authorities will believe it when they see it.

I know Scripps--Howard came today in their story out of Brazil mentioned alot of these guys, see, they got it on page 3.

Shackelford? No, this other guy, Kurtzman

Well it was the Copley press

Oh Copley,

Writing out of Brazil, down there

Oh they buy that Copley service, south American service. Well, we, they didn't have any more names than we did.

They sure didn't have as many, they got it in the story here

Well, that turned out to be a terrifically timely, of course, as a matter of fact the story made the uproar. It's somthin to wathh if you can get any dope on what they're going to give Mr. DAMPAS (Phonetic)

You saw this Clay committee thing, didn't you.

Yeh, yeh I saw thah.

I've got another little item that the State Department is putting out this story about Passman spending I think a hundred and thirty four dollars of counterpart funds in Hong Kong, where we dont have any foreign aid.

Just hang it on the State Department

I am

The State Department is leaking out this stuff, lets just hang this on these bastards, and let em squirm. Sure. We're getting around now.

Well, I'll go ahead on that

Yeh, o.k. Paul

It is worth noting that the State Department Policy Planning Staff, when it was headed by Robert BOWIE in 1956, was a favorite target of MORRIS because of BOWIE's association with Owen LATTIMORE. In addition, ALLEN's column of November 6, 1961 stated that the National Security Council policy of U. S. aid to Yugoslavia was written by Robert BOWIE and that approval of that National Security Council order of July 18, 1956 was predicated on a CIA report prepared by Robert AMORY and Sherman KENT.

The U. S. aid to Yugoslavia is currently a top target of the extreme right wing and particularly those Texas elements who are opposed to Yugoslav jet pilot training at an air base in Paris, Texas. As a result of these protests, further pilot training was terminated in mid-December 1961 at the request of a Yugoslav Defense Ministry official.

In addition, it is worth noting that Rober AMORY has been a favorite target of the extreme right wing who have quoted him as saying in the past that Red China should be recognized and seated in the U. N. A copy of ALLEN and SCOTT's article is attached as Attachment B.

8. SCOTT and ALLEN in their columns have stated that Cord MEYER is in charge of unvouchered funds in CIA and had spent over four million dollars in the past year; that Mr. McCOONE was disturbed at Cord MEYER funding Socialist conferences in Europe; and MEYER's background was set forth in the column ~~impressing~~ the fact that he was formerly head of the United World Federalists. Strawing Rundhal

It may or may not be ^{relevant} ~~relative~~ that Cord MEYER in 1954 furnished a loyalty affidavit ^{for} ~~to~~ Jessie MCKNIGHT, a State Department official then under investigation. MCKNIGHT at that period was a target of investigation by Robert MORRIS who, at the time, was Executive Director of the Senate Internal Security Committee.

It is also noteworthy that MEYER's name and his connection with United World Federalists and CIA have appeared in Facts Forum, a text published and put out by H. L. HUNT, Texas oil man, and Blair Morby, both active in right wing circles.

9. SCOTT alleged that "some of the CIA estimates on East Germany were poor ones particularly in view of what has happened in East Germany". Further investigation will be required on this allegation.

10. SCOTT said that he had read the executive session testimony of General Bedell SMITH in which SMITH, according to SCOTT, claimed that CIA had been penetrated.

What SCOTT was referring to was General SMITH's testimony of October 13, 1952 before the HCUA in which he stated that the Agency must assume that it is penetrated and work from that premise, and second that there had been some agent type operation overseas which had been found to be Soviet intelligence controlled. These are the statements which General SMITH made in the open session. It is not known whether testimony was given in executive session, but it seems quite clear from the open session testimony that executive session testimony, if any, would not have been beyond that just described.
