1. We have reviewed the financial accounting on the [illegible] Project for the period 1-31 August 1948 and find it to be generally well presented. However, the following comments regarding this accounting are indicated for your information:

a. Voucher No. 14: No statement has been made as to whether or not these vehicles are official. It appears that they may be military vehicles; if military, why were not ordnance vehicles utilized? If the vehicles were official government cars, why were not receipts obtained for the expenditure?

b. Voucher No. 18. Receipts for the expenditures on housekeeping accounts should be attached to a voucher of this type.

The foregoing exceptions are included for your guidance in future operations and do not require a specific action or answer.

2. In the interest of security it is advisable that we divorce our operations and administrative procedures from affiliated installations as completely as is possible. To this end we are contemplating [illegible] [redacted] [illegible] is giving attention to this matter and will appreciate any suggestions which you may care to offer.

3. [illegible] of the [illegible] of the August financial accounting and our [illegible] to give you [illegible] assistance from this end.
