Excerpt of pertinent information :

The responsible members of the PNT (National Peasant Party) in Paris, as well as important followers of the RNC (Visoiana) in NY, are uneasy here because so far it was not possible to detect the reaction of the "Americans" to the formation of the new Committee.

Some quarters believe that General Radescu will not form a Committee of his own. These quarters base their hopes on the fact that, at the religious service celebrated in NY on 8 November, (organized by Barbu Niculescu) at which were present all the members of the old Committee, General Radescu included, it was Augustin Popa who delivered a short speech, without any reaction at all from the part of the General. The General's lack of reaction was then interpreted as a tacit approval of the "de facto" situation. . . .

This is all the pertinent information on subject in this document.
