Argentina

3.5(c)

[redacted] The assassination yesterday of an undersecretary in Argentina's Ministry of Economy was the first major terrorist incident in almost a year. The style of the attack suggests it was the work of one of the nation's two major leftist terrorist organizations, the People's Revolutionary Army or the Montoneros.

3.5(c)

[redacted] The action is almost certainly calculated to focus attention on economic grievances at a time when the government's austerity measures are coming under increasing political attack. Neither of the terrorist groups, which have been hard hit by the military government, is likely to become a more serious threat.
