SUBJECT Further Data on Eugen Dollmann

NO. OF PAGES. 1

DATE OF INFO. 17 October 1952

PLACE ACQUIRED Germany, Bonn

- 1. Dollmann flew to Germany with an Italian travel passport, giving his name as Enrico Lärchner, living in Madrid.
- 2. The trip was probably made in connection with the Bund of German Youth (BDJ) movement.
- 3. Dollmann's arrival was probably betrayed. He was arrested at the airfield and charged with entering Germany with false papers. He did not deny it.
- 4. Dollmann was working with Skorzeny in Madrid, and for some time was Skorzeny's confidential agent in Italy.
- 5. Dollmann lived without papers in Madrid for some time. He obtained the "Enrico Lärchner" papers through Giovanni Rocchi of Milan. Rocchi advised him, however, not to use the papers in Germany. It is probable that Rocchi worked with Dollmann during the war.
- 6. Further investigations are being made into Rocchi.
