... Former metropolite Visarion PUIU continues his manuevers in Paris by excommunicating all orthodox Rumanians who have apposed the Interim Commission of the Rumanian church of Paris. We again refer to the facts, this former metropolite is mixed up in politics. He was a member of the Horia SIMA Government in Vienna, namely a Nazi agent. That Government, which was a kind of Darlan Rumanian government, offended not only King Michael the First of Rumania, who brought to an end Antonesco's dictatorship, who but also the allies and free France. The appearance in Rumanian politics abroad of Horia SIMA, Pamfil Seicaru, Visarian, architect Enesco, etc. is not only a disastrous omen, but it also gives arguments to the Communists in Bucharest who are attempting to identify the true Rumanian democratic resistance abroad with former Nazis, who also try to take advantage of this confusion in claiming that they are resisters. In reality, they are not a part of Rumanian resistance, but of German resistance... ...
