9. An operational report received from C J on 5 Feb 1952 indicated that TATSUMI EIICHI's recommendation to State Minister OKAZAKI KATSUO were approved, and that the four appointees met on 3 Feb to discuss future plans. They were cautioned by TATSUMI to keep their appointments secret until Government policy on rearmament was made public. A later report dated 14 Feb states Prime Minister YOSHIDA has decided to shelve the study group for the time being, possible until after the next election. 10. YOSHIDA did state through TATSUMI, however, that he is anxious to organize training academies for officers of the IPR by April 52, and requested the group's cooperation in planning this endeavor.
