1. A sensitive source has reported that Subjects' abortive trip throughout the Middle East in October 1970 was funded by the Algerian Department of International Studies (DEI) and sponsored by the Palestinian liberation organization Fatah. Failures in communications within Fatah were blamed for the trip's fiasco, since the Fatah representatives in Beirut were not informed in time of Subjects' arrival there and were thus not at the Beirut airport to take charge of them when they arrived. Ahmed WARFI, Fatah representative in Algiers, was held responsible for the fiasco.

2. Fatah leader Yasir ARAFAT reportedly wants the group to return to the Middle East as soon as feasible. Fatah will pay the expenses for the return trip which may commence sometime around 1-7 November 1970.

3. The above information is being made available to your office with the understanding that it will receive no further dissemination without the prior approval of this office.
