3. JCP Explicits Anti-U.S. Speech of Ex-Army Officer (Second of Two Articles):
a. Posters, Pamphlets Used: Himpared by banning of its numerous press outlets, the JCP in publicizing TSUJI Masanobu's anti-U.S. speech has, however, made use of posters, leaflets and pamphlets to make known his views which are so readily adaptable at this time to Communist uses. In addition to publicity given the speech by the pro-Communist press, JCP committees all over Japan reprinted the speech in the form of special propaganda leaflets and posters for dissemination to party members and the general public. By the end of June such propaganda material, intelligence sources stated, were found in such widely separated areas as Nagano, Aichi, and Shimane Prefectures, Tokyo and Hokkaido. Reportedly, the party has put out small pamphlets at 10 yen a copy for distribution to the public in Kanagawa Prefecture. The flexibility of JCP propaganda methods brings up the question of whether TSUJI's speech has been reported accurately, or distorted for Communist ends. Although it was claimed that pro-JCP journals contained only those portions of the speech which would add further weight to Communist propaganda for an over-all peace and non-militarization of Japanese territory, and that many portions of the speech were omitted or altered, a comparison of such versions with Japanese police reports indicated that the several versions put out by the JCP, in general, followed the original.
