While riffling through some old contact reports, I came across a [] comment that has application to the above references. In one of our last contacts here (6 October 1953), [] noted that the extreme left and extreme right sometimes get together. He then went on to say that TSUJI is the man we all ought to worry about, that his type of propaganda - anti-U.S. and anti-Soviet - will eventually sell a lot better than Communism and is just as dangerous.
