

ZIPPER Case : Fall SCHAPER

Case of a former Colonel Fritz SCHULZ who reported that he had been contacted by the RIS who gave him the following EEI's: contact various individuals known to him including BOTSCH, SODENSTERN and Mr. von der GROEBEN. Also General HEUSINGER.

He had been approached by his brother-in-law, Fritz TIEDGE in January 1955 who brought further instructions from the RIS and stated that the RIS claimed S could not escape them. S and T decided to tell the Russians that S was in absolutely no position to be of any help to the Russians and that he did not feel himself at all qualified for intelligence activities therefore the whole affair should be dropped.

SCHULZ had been interrogated in 1951 by the RIS in SALZWEDEL, Am Hafen 3. Again in August 1952 by fmu PETROV when S was given the pseudonym LAMPE.

End of October 1952 S was interviewed by PETROV in a safehouse on Karl-Marx strasse (formerly Bismarckstr), MAGDEBURG.

January 1953 was given telephone # 34 898 in MAGDEBURG

His brother-in-law TIEDGE reported that on 14 March 1955 he was forced to report to a Soviet safe house in MAGDEBURG (Gegend Harder/Klopstockstr)

4 June 1955 TIEDGE again paid S a visit at the instructions of the RIS in Magdeburg. He inquired whether S had accomplished the missions assigned to him on T's last visit. T was to explain to S that he was merely acting as the intermediary and did not know what the Russians might do but was of the opinion that their patience was coming to an end. S said ~~no~~ (as suggested by ZIPPER) that he was not prepared to cooperate with the RIS. S is not the type who can be used for a double play.

S wrote a letter saying he cannot "as a former officer" work against his fatherland

ZIPPER plans to continue reporting this affair as situation develops in order see how Russians treat a recalcitrant prospective agent over whom they have considerable control.
