BT--

Thanks for the RID material on this man, returned herewith. The form he filled out is new to me; handwriting (as everything else) shows a man with a will of iron. I note that the desk is charged with the file; seems to me that when I last called for the file, it was not at the desk but inRID, but this may be a scille fancy.

In any case, in view of my note of 7 July 1966 to ( ) it is possible that Jack has started something in this case; and that the desk may be following up (German Desk Style). Now that ( ) is i/c of the desk, we could call a conference on this and maybe move Art or someone to get this man axed or else recruited, surveilled, etc.

I find interesting the fact that he ~~was~~ <sup>didn't</sup> know where his mother was expelled to, although he himself was already set at large by the Russians when she was expelled (para 14 of his handwritten PRQ).

Anybody tackling this case better be prepared to encounter a good deal of resistance....

Maybe we can get Art to do something about this.
