1. Georg HELTAL, chief of the political section of the Hungarian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, after a six day stay in the USA went back to Hungary. Mr. Heltau had his New York headquarters in the Barclay Plaza Hotel. The purpose of his visit was to enforce recent orders of the Communist Party in Hungary, i.e. that, especially in the foreign service, he to be a member of the Communist Party. He checked on loyalty of the employees of the Hungarian Legation in Washington and the different consular offices in the United States.

Mr. Heltau held conferences with the editors of the "MAGYAR SZAV" Hungarian language continued newspaper in New York and discussed tactics to be employed by the newspaper in the future, with reference to the reformation of the Communist Party "MAGYAR SZAV" in New York.

Source to his information is a Mr. [Name] (NYRD) [Name] Budapest born wealthy Hungarian businessman who allegedly has contacts [Name] [Name] and [Name] [Name]. He also reported Heltau's arrival in New York.
