The American Deserters Committee has now acquired its own premises on Upplandsgatan in Stockholm. Other leftist organizations are also housed there, including Folkets Atelje (the People's Studio), an organization which is primarily concered with poster art.

[Redacted]

The ADC has parties on its premises every Saturday. It is rumored that the parties principally consist of smoking hashish. Young girls, who belong to the National Liberation Front movement, attended such a party on 29 March 1969 and were noticeably under the influence of narcotics.
