MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORDSUBJECT: DDI/ONE - Consultants

1. On 23 February I met with Miss Frances Douglas, DDI/ONE, to obtain information regarding the manner in which ONE used the 19 individuals appearing on the Office of Personnel's Summary of Consultants.

2. Miss Douglas advised that this group of individuals was otherwise known as the "Princeton Panel" and met approximately four times a year for two day sessions at Princeton, New Jersey; that the attendance at these meetings was approximately 20--13 or 14 being consultants, the balance Agency personnel; and that the purpose of such meetings was to consider the substance contained in National Estimates drafts.

3. Miss Douglas corrected the Summary by adding the names of Lindbeck, Pye and Pugh, bringing the current total of consultants up to 22.

4. In discussing this Panel it was learned that 16 served with compensation ($50 a day), the remaining six WOC. The majority of the members are historians and members of the staff of various universities, the balance being made up of the heads of several nonprofit organizations, and retired military. Of the 22 individuals, it seems that 11 are former Agency employees. The Panel convenes at the call of the Agency and its meetings are chaired by an Agency member. ONE has no contracts with any of the institutes in which its Panel members are associated.

5. The identity of the ONE consultants and the affiliation of each is as follows:
