

Herewith Attachment 1 to:

[Redacted]

7 June 1973

(b)(3)

Dear [Redacted]

(b)(3)

Inasmuch as I am about to go off on leave for a month, and the Watergate matter is still bubbling around. I thought I should perhaps recapitulate my knowledge of the [Redacted] [Redacted] /Edward J. Hamilton relationship during 1972. This to preclude calling me while I am in St. Croix on leave.

The attachment, in connection with all other correspondence which is available in Headquarters, constitutes everything that I know about this sordid mess. The only thing, however, that I have that you do not have in Headquarters, is the original of [Redacted] letter to me setting forth his relations with Mr. Hunt. This paper dated 5 April in retrospect appears only to be a cover story probably previously agreed upon for use in this area. In any event, it is in [Redacted] own handwriting. I prefer to keep the original in my own files here in the Station.

(b)(3)

If all things go as expected, I shall be in Washington some time the latter part of August 1973. Meanwhile I hope things continue to go well for you and yours.

Sincerely,

[Redacted Signature]
