Professor J. R. Strayer
Department of History
Princeton University
Princeton, New Jersey

Dear Joe:

Once again I want to thank you for your summer tour with the Board. Your contribution to this most important phase of our work is and always has been an outstanding one. It has been particularly reassuring to me to have the benefit of your judgment in the summer months when all the crises seem to break upon us and when annual leaves have reduced our strength. We owe to you and your seemingly tireless energy a large part of the credit for maintaining the standards of quality which are so important in the national intelligence estimates.

All my gratitude to you. I look forward to a long succession of similar summers. In the meantime, I anticipate with pleasure the Princeton meetings.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
