2. Pressure was brought on Amnesty International to include the members of the "Conspiracy Eight" on trial in Chicago, Illinois, as political prisoners. William Moses KUNSTLER (born 7 July 1919 in New York, New York), one of the lawyers for the "Conspiracy Eight" discussed the matter with Amnesty International leaders [redacted]. However, according to Subject, AI leaders concluded that the "Conspiracy Eight" are simply agitators and they will not be included in the directory.
