The Mauritanian Democratic Union Party has condemned the death sentences handed down against a number of opponents of the military coup in Egypt, in particular President-elect Mohamed Morsi. The party said in a statement issued today that the several death sentences against those who refused the coup confirms the putschist authority's disrespect of human dignity, and the choices of the Egyptian people, as reflected in the ballot boxes in 2012. The party called on the Egyptian authorities to respect the rights and dignity of the citizens of the country, and the options of the Egyptian people; and to consider the sentences handed down against President-elect Mohamed Morsi and his companions as null and void.
