⑩ EL SALVADOR: Fighting Continues

[Redacted] that guerrillas have seized three towns in northern Morazan Department, including Perquin, and remain in control of Las Vueltas in Chalatenango Department. The insurgents say they have killed more than 70 government troops, captured 107 prisoners, and seized large quantities of weapons and ammunition. They also have cut power lines to the eastern part of the country and have warned of impending attacks on the nation's transportation system. [Redacted]

Comment: The insurgents thus far have selected easy targets, enabling them to score quick victories. Government units are likely to begin major counterattacks soon, but new insurgent activity and sabotage operations elsewhere may keep them off balance. [Redacted]
